THERE'S NOTHING LIKE AUSTRALIA – CAMPAIGN LOCATIONS 2014

BAROSSA VALLEY, SOUTH AUSTRALIA

Hot Air Ballooning, Hentley Farm Vineyard and Seppeltsfield Vineyard

With more than 80 cellar doors and 150 wineries, the Barossa Valley is one of Australia's oldest - and the world's finest - wine producing regions. From boutique and quirky vineyards, to internationally renowned wines like Penfolds, the Barossa Valley is also renowned for its fresh seasonal produce, artisan food producers and award-winning restaurants.

One hour's drive from the state's capital, Adelaide, you can explore the Barossa by bicycle, vintage car, helicopter or hot air balloon.

Set among the rolling hills on the banks of Greenock Creek, Hentley Farm is a boutique vineyard with an intimate cellar door, housed in the property's original 1840s homestead. Around the corner, the beautiful Seppeltsfield Vineyard remains the only winery in the world to release a 100 year-old single vintage wine each year.

CANBERRA REGION, AUSTRALIAN CAPITAL TERRITORY

The Poachers Pantry

Canberra, Australia's capital, offers unexpected culinary delights within leafy surrounds – a hidden gem for food lovers. Relax in modern cafes, hip eateries and pop up dining venues, experience hatted restaurants with innovative cuisine, dine with mountain views, and taste award-winning wines and fresh food among gorgeous rural surrounds.

Poachers Pantry, situated on a farm north of Canberra is home to a cafe-restaurant, winery and smokehouse. An old, lovingly restored weatherboard cottage overlooking the 1890s slab woolshed provides a smart yet casual dining experience. Relax on the terrace overlooking the gardens, while enjoying traditional smoked meats transformed into contemporary dishes.

FREYCINET, TASMANIA

Saffire Lodge, Freycinet National Park and MONA - The Museum of Old and New Art

Freycinet Peninsula is a breathtaking scenic combination of pink granite mountains, white sand beaches, crystal clear water and eucalypt forests, over a 38-kilometre stretch of pristine coastline.

Perched on Tasmania's east coast, overlooking the Hazards Mountains, Freycinet Peninsula and Great Oyster Bay, Saffire Freycinet is a stunning luxury lodge surrounded by breathtaking nature. Guests are treated to a range of complimentary activities including, guided walks to the lookout over Wineglass Bay and sailing tow nearby islands on the purpose-built vessel, Saffire.

Don a pair of waders and visit the Freycinet Marine Farm, a working oyster farm where you can sample oysters fresh from the bay with a glass of champagne in the most beautiful setting.

As Australia's second-oldest city, Hobart's rich, colonial heritage and natural charms are complemented by great festivals and top-notch food and drink. MONA, a quirky modern art gallery on the Berridale Peninsula, combines art with fine produce and wine, with the Moorilla Winery and MooBrew brewery housed in the grounds of the museum.

MELBOURNE, VICTORIA

Yarra River, Cookie Restaurant, Melbourne Laneways

Set along the picturesque banks of the Yarra River, Melbourne is considered one of Australia's most artistic, fashionable and elegant destinations. The city's melting pot of cultures is reflected in its eclectic mix of restaurants, cafes, bistros and bars. In fact, the Melburnian love of a good meal has placed the city in the top echelons of global dining.

Wander the quirky web of over 180 tiny laneways and side streets, bursting with one-off fashion boutiques, art galleries, hole-in-the wall cafes and secret bars and restaurants. These lanes are lined with everything from graffiti art, second-hand books and celebrity wigs to hard-core fashion from emerging designers.

Inside Cookie, the street entrance gives little away. The walls are adorned with murals and artwork from local Melbourne artists, laid back charm oozes from every cocktail, right up to the rooftop cinema and open air bar.

ROTTNEST ISLAND, WESTERN AUSTRALIA

Rottneest Island Beaches, Wadjemup Lighthouse

Just 19 km off the coast of Western Australia, and a short ferry ride, Rottneest Island boasts untouched wildlife, turquoise water, fresh seafood and stunning coastal scenery. With 63 beaches, superb snorkeling sites, friendly quokkas, 6,500 years of history to discover and 50 kilometers of roads to explore on a guided tour, bus or bike, you'll be spoilt for choice when you step off the ferry.

Catch, cook and taste Western Australia's famous Rock Lobster and other delicious local seafood found in the pristine and protected waters of the island.

SYDNEY, NEW SOUTH WALES

Water taxi to Lavender Bay, Sydney Harbour, Quay Restaurant

Sydney boasts a gorgeous harbour, seductive outdoor lifestyle and great natural beauty, surrounded by some of the world's most prestigious restaurants. Sydney Harbour Bridge and Sydney Opera House provide a stunning backdrop, however the scenic city is renowned for much more than its iconic landmarks and great beaches.

Sydney is at the forefront of the global food and wine trend, with innovative chefs like Peter Gilmore from Quay leading the pack. Arrive at his stunning harbourside restaurant by water-taxi or boat, and take in the spectacular harbour views with a sunset glass of Hunter Valley Semillon.

ULURU, NORTHERN TERRITORY

Uluru, Longitude 131, Tali Wiru Sunset Dinner

Right in the heart of Uluru Kata Tjuta National Park in Australia's Red Centre, Uluru is a place that speaks of timeless folklore, rich indigenous culture and great spirituality. Almost two kilometres wide, 350 metres high and nine kilometres around its base, the rock is a chameleon, changing colour throughout the day.

You can spend days exploring the National Park, including a guided walk with traditional owners while learning about bush skills and foods, sunrise camel rides or viewing some of Uluru's many rock art sites. But the most iconic way to unwind is with 'Tali Wiru' – an intimate degustation dining experience under the outback sky.

THE WHITSUNDAY ISLANDS, QUEENSLAND

Whitehaven Beach, Hill Inlet, Chalkie's Beach

The Whitsundays is a group of 74 islands, located in the heart of Australia's natural wonder, the Great Barrier Reef, on the tropical coast of Queensland. The Whitsunday Islands are famous for their luxurious offerings, including world-class food and wine experiences ranging from decadent beach dinners to chef prepared picnic baskets served on private strips of sparkling white sand.

One of the best ways to soak up the sun-drenched beauty of this island paradise is to sail away on board a self-skipped or crewed catamaran or yacht, visiting a different island or reef each day.

The largest island, Whitsunday Island, is also one of the most famous, with the crystal clear aqua waters and pristine silica sand of uninhabited Whitehaven Beach. It stretches over seven kilometres and offers breathtaking views – best experienced on a private helicopter flight.
